2. The second wave of grants was awarded to students with an estimated family contribution between $5,712 and $9,000 (the cutoff range for Pell eligibility). This encompassed income ranges of approximately $60,000 to $128,000 per year.
3. The third wave of grants was awarded to Pell eligible students until funds were depleted.

In compliance with guidelines of the CARES Act, funds awarded were not applied to any student balances owed to the college. Students, who wished to resolve a balance owed to the college, were instructed to contact the Fiscal Control Office at (928) 428-8221.
