The College President or personnel designated by the College President shall secure and maintain in force, appropriate insurance against loss or damage to property by fire, storm, theft, and other hazards, risks to personnel including workers' compensation, public liability, vehicular travel, malfeasance of professional staff, and errors and omissions.

At the District Governing Board's discretion, group insurance programs may also be secured to assist staff and students in acquiring coverage for themselves and their families for life, health, accident, or other insurance, so long as these programs are in compliance with state law.
